ABOUT NEXTGEN AWARD

At the CIBPA, we acknowledge creativity and innovation by drawing attention to the amazing things these young people are accomplishing and inspiring others to do the same.

The recipient demonstrates conviction, dedication and a relentless pursuit of personal and professional excellence through their engagement, advancement and influence in our community.

The occasion will acknowledge and celebrate the exceptional accomplishments of one nominee who has positively impacted others around them. The more we celebrate the success of the next generation and support their ambitions, the brighter the outlook for the future.
